SAPOLIO

The superiority of this excellent preparation over any other article ever offered to the public has been fully demonstrated, and its popularity it has attained within the brief year since it was first manufactured. Notes, then.

One Million Housekeeper's
One Million Housekeepers in this and other rooms and the demand is rapidly increasing.

at brick, cotton stone, sand and lime no longer a necessity in the household, since one does the work of each and all, and thinner labor and expense.

The following are a few of the special uses to which Sapolio is admirably adapted:

CLEAN WINDOWS—Without wetting or soaping, Sapolio can be applied to the glass and dipped, rub it over the pane of Sapolio, and then wash over the pane of glass you can efface any stain or dry cloth will require little extra rubbing.

O CLEAN KNIVES—Use your dish-cloth, rub on the Sapolio, and then rapidly over the knives. This will give a brilliant and durable polish to them.

PLATE, IRON, BRASS, and other Cutlery Wash—dip the damp cloth on the case of Sapolio until well covered, and then quickly over the surface of the utensils, and one does the work of each and all, and
thinner labor and expense.

The following are a few of the special uses to which Sapolio is admirably adapted:

CLEAN PAINT AND WOOD-WORK—Use Sapolio as above; do not rub too hard, and then wash clean in clear water.

FOR STAIN REMOVAL—One of the great est uses is in the saving of time, labor and the wear of the articles cleaned. Try it once and you will never be without it.

FOR WASHING Dishes, Bath-tubs, Floors, etc.—Sapolio is a perfect wash. One Sapolio is invaluable and once used, will never be dispensed with.

REMOVES STAIN FROM MARBLE
IN THE HOUSE—for all purposes (except washing clothes), this article is a convenient convenient and reliable article.

IN THE STORE—For cleaning scales, measures tin, brass or copper, knives, shears, etc.

IN THE SHOP—For cleaning, polishing and removing rusts, oil, etc., from machinery and tools.

MEDICINE—of the surgeon, dentist, etc.

ALL PLACES where a cleansing and polishing agent is required, our Sapolio, will prove its great superiority over all other substances.

FOR LAMPS—Sapolio is just what every painter, painter, photographer or machinist needs. It quickly removes acids, paint, ink and other stains from the hands, which soap will not remove. It softens the hands and leaves them smooth and white.

TO THE PUBLIC.

WILLIAM R. BURKE, M. D.

On or about the 16th day of September, 1860, in the city of New Orleans, while in perfect health,

I was in a moment, struck with paralysis of my right arm, unable to move it, and confined to bed.

An All-powerful and merciful God is now fast restoring me to health, and is enabling me to resume a practice of my profession. I have taken an office, for the present, in the Perry House.

Corner Commercial Avenue and Eighth street where I will be prepared to render professional aid to all who may need my services.

To the poor I will at all times prefer, cheerfully treat.

For Negro as well as the poor White Man, will always be welcome to my services.
